I have worked with Conklin Bros. and John Shiels on various carpet and flooring projects over the past ten years. KGO-TV has benefited from the caliber of people at Conklin Bros. from the salesman to the installers to the finance people. If an issue comes up on a particular job, it is handled in a very professional manner.

We usually bid out our big projects and find that Conklin Bros. is usually near or at the low end of pricing for projects. The reputation of the Conklin Bros. combined with the experience and dedication of their employees, encourages KGO-TV to seek bids from Conklin Bros. on all flooring projects.

I have enjoyed working with John Shiels on the various flooring projects that we have done over the past ten years.
